PETERBOROUGH
CATHEDRAL

Thank you for your interest in volunteering at Peterborough Cathedral. We are glad to have you, and are grateful for the offer of your time and talents. We hope that you enjoy your experience. Peterborough Cathedral values volunteers as an essential and distinctive part of its structure. As a volunteer you support the work of our paid staff to enhance the daily life of the Cathedral. Please see our website for more information on our corporate volunteering programme: www.peterborough-cathedral.org.uk/corporate-volunteering.aspx

What do volunteers do?

The opportunities for your volunteering day might include: hands-on work inside or outside the Cathedral; caring for the building and its beautiful grounds; supporting our events team by preparing for and stewarding our exciting events programme; helping with publicity; assisting with our archive of books and documents.

Why do Corporate Volunteering at Peterborough Cathedral?

There are so many ways in which your team or business can support the work of the Cathedral. One of the ways you can help is by giving us your time. Corporate volunteering is a highly valuable experience for all of those who get involved, not only will you gain a great sense of achievement, there are numerous other benefits both personally and professionally:

- Volunteering increases employee engagement and well being through meaningful activities.
- It delivers on your organisation's Corporate Social Responsibility values.
- It enhances your visibility and reputation in the local community.
- It makes a crucial contribution to the services we provide.

Peterborough Cathedral strives to create a diverse and inclusive volunteer organisation. We are committed to ensuring equality of access to high quality volunteer opportunities and equality of treatment for our volunteers regardless of their gender, age, race, sexuality, class, ability, culture and beliefs.

Volunteers to the Cathedral have described their experience as:

“A privilege to be a volunteer, extremely rewarding. The Cathedral is a treasure-trove of antiquities.”

*“When I think about being a volunteer at the Cathedral it makes me smile!
It’s time well spent.”*

“Not being a regular church goer, I was a bit apprehensive, but this was forgotten in minutes. Everyone was very welcoming, time flew by and I had a very enjoyable day. I will volunteer there again.”
